Position: Kitchen Attendant

Venue: Vue de monde

Reporting to: Executive Chef & Head Chef

To Apply: Email your CV to recruitment@vue.group

Presently undergoing an exciting refurbishment and anticipating a reopening in late October, Vue de Monde is actively searching for passionate Kitchen Attendants to bolster our back-of-house team. You will play an instrumental role in ensuring the seamless operations of our kitchen, both before, during, and after service.

Vue de Monde is the iconic heart of the Vue Group, where we proudly display exceptional Australian produce amid awe-inspiring surroundings. Renowned for our fine-dining experience, we have garnered consistent accolades, with the prestigious Australian Good Food Guide Awards 2023 recently awarding us 3 Hats, solidifying our position as one of Australia's finest establishments.

This exciting opportunity is a casual position that calls for flexibility and availability to work on weekends. Your shifts may encompass a mix of day and night shifts. The night shifts typically run from 4:00 pm to 1:00 am

The day-to-day will include:

- Cleaning the kitchen, utensils, kitchen appliances, floors, walls and all surfaces
- Removal and cleaning of rubbish bins
- Cleaning and polishing glasses and cutlery
- Assist chefs with basic food preparation
- Ensuring all food preparation tasks you are assigned are carried out in a timely fashion, to a high standard and within food hygiene guidelines
- Assisting in other areas of Vue de monde operations as directed by the Head Chef

As a Kitchen Attendant you will need to possess the following:

- Energy and passion with industry experience considered advantageous
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment
- A positive attitude and genuine customer focus in service excellence
- Exceptional communication skills
- Reliable, organised, and well presented at all times
- Self-motivated and a desire to continually learn and develop
